

"Do not be afraid! I proclaim good news to you of a great joy which will be shared by the whole people: today, in the city of David, a Savior has been born to you, who is Messiah and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in a crib." —Luke, Chapter 2.

HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL

The Editor Speaks . . .

We are surely living in prophetic times. Here at COMMON SENSE we have closely followed national events and have tried to keep our readers informed. Many obstacles slow us down in addition to our chronic problems of not having enough money nor staff to do the job that needs to be done. Ours is oftentimes a thankless job but we take comfort in the knowledge that we are doing God's work and have the satisfaction of a job well done — at least it was our very best effort even if we couldn't keep everybody happy.

We can look back over the past 26 years with pride, during which we unremittently and unflinchingly pinpointed the enemy. We paid a high price for this singular approach then as we do now. COMMON SENSE was the trail blazer. From the outset the Talmudic forces of Satan were united in one concerted drive: To end COMMON SENSE, come what may. Books could be written on the trials and hardships we had to face in those early days. Thanks to Our Lord and the hard-core valiant few that never deserted us, we managed to remain in business.

It didn't take long for us to find out that Communism was a Jewish front, but it did take some time to realize that many so-called "anti-Communist" outfits were secretly supported by the Jews. Then the full significance of the left-right, liberal-conservative, Democrat-Republican orbits dawned upon us. It all centers around the right-left polarity, an expertly staged control mechanism of the Establishment, perhaps the most diabolical agent of destruction ever invented, with the Zionist ringmaster in complete charge.

We are following our present approach in our fight to end alien control of America and save what is left of Christianity because there is simply no other course to follow. As we indeed face the closing days of this battle, our position is even more difficult than ever. We have made a lot of enemies and friends over the years, but when we jumped out of the Right-Left orbit and refused to serve the Zionist ringmaster, that's when we REALLY made enemies. Unavoidably we offended the sensibilities of our own people caught in the Right-Left orbit and incurred their wrath — which brings to mind the oft-repeated statement of the late Conde McGinley: "If we could get our own people to stop fighting us and EACH OTHER, we might still have a chance to win."

Our hope lies in the fact that, with the proper backing, which we really despair of ever getting, if even at this late date the masses united as one — the good in all movements of which there are millions, perhaps 90% of the population — and trained their guns on the common enemy,

God Love You! Cherished
 Friend of Mine!
 What Thoughts Awaken As I Say It;
 I Almost Feel That
 Distance Fades
 And You Are Near Me as I
 Pray It
 God Love You!
 As I Yearn to Love You,

 Mid Gloom and Care, in Peace and Rest

the country might still be saved. All other differences — too often magnified out of proportion — would soon disappear into oblivion if the one common enemy of all our trouble were removed from the scene!

Contrary to what many may think, the solution to the present world situation does not lie in controversy of any kind. It lies only in demolition. There must be complete demolition, the enemy driven from positions of power, and the land re-born again in the physical order just as this month we prepare for a similar transition in the spiritual order.

We can discuss the United Nations, Federal Reserve System, Constitution, sex in schools, taxes, far into the night, accomplishing nothing except the dissipation of our energies into dead end projects. Just let anyone pursuing these phases of activity — which are symptoms and not root causes — become a real threat to the Establishment and he will simply disappear or just "happen to die" at the right moment.

For that matter, we can't come up with one good reason for saving this rotten society in which we find ourselves today. Why should we save an alien Establishment bent on our destruction? And a rubber stamp Congress sworn to help them do it? Or a Constitution which brought us to our present state of affairs? Or the mass media which must accept full responsibility for educating the masses to accept this evil servitude? Or the schools which trained our present-day leadership? Or the reverend clergy who led their flocks to perdition?

We have sown the seeds of our own

"MY PEACE I GIVE UNTO YOU" Calling All Women!

By LYRL CLARK Van HYNING

Men have failed. "The gentlemen talk peace, peace but there is no peace." They have all the material ingredients, including Freedom, yet their concoction has not that life — catalyst — Jesus Christ. Men are "practical," "realistic," so they talk peace but they ignore the Master's one condition. "My Peace." They try to whittle Jesus down until He fits the sinister force's pattern — the peace of a slave camp. They are shutting the DOOR in the face of their poor Jewish friends, shutting them out of Eternal bliss, when the Master of this earth said: "Every knee must bow, every tongue confess My Name."

Will women now take up the responsibility, the sacred trust which is theirs? Women owe everything to Jesus. Women were no more than chattel-slaves, when Jesus came and lifted them to Queen-head. He glorified the three Marys, who defied the threats of the Jews and Romans and followed Him beyond Calvary to the tomb. The men lost heart and faith at Calvary, they went and hid in an "upper chamber" for "fear of the Jews" just as today the men can't see the Risen Saviour; but the women, having received so much, have so much more to lose, will bear witness to God's TRUTH. On that glad morning of resurrection, when Mary Magdalene was commanded "Tell the brethren," she was told why this glad errand was hers:

"From henceforward Womanhood is rendered sacred in the sight of the Eternal, through her whom we call the mother of the Nazarene. Go thy ways, Mary! Fulfill thine errand and delay not; for 'tis the errand of all true women henceforth unto the end of this world's time." Men will work bravely to support their own lies, but scarce a soul shall be found on earth, willing to bear pure witness to God's truth.

"But keep the faith, Mary! — on woman's love and patience rests the world's future." . . . "Tis ever and 'twill ever be a self-professing Priest of the Divine who crucifies Divinity!"

We, the awakened Protestants have been saddened to see our preachers "crucify" the Divinity: first by compromising on the Divinity of Jesus (that began when I was a girl in college, when the Rockefeller Fossdick said the Divinity and the Miracles were unimportant); then came the Council of Churches and the "Modern" Bible, which makes Jesus only a good man. But we had hope that the Catholic churches would hold fast. We knew something of their great men: Fr. Jouin of France, Fr. Fahey of Ireland, Fr. Coughlin and his great Bishop Gallagher of our own country. These men knew of the secret Societies of the sinister force. Many Popes have inveighed against
